We are currently working to ensure that when you buy AMTECH fluxes, solder paste & powder, you actually buy a product manufactured by INVENTEC PERFORMANCE CHEMICALS USA in our United States plant in DEEP RIVER, CONNECTICUT.

To put it bluntly, we have terminated our commercial relationship with the platform <https://amtechdirect.com> as of September 18, 2021. No INVENTEC PERFORMANCE CHEMICALS product is now being sold on this platform or by its affiliated resellers. As of today, Inventec has never authorized or licensed any company to manufacture our AMTECH fluxes, solder paste or powder (and certainly not Amtech Manufacturing LLC). We have never been selling on AMAZON, EBAY or ALIBABA. All purchases of alleged "Amtech" products on Amtechdirect, Amazon, Ebay or Alibaba are made at the sole risk of their purchasers.

Accordingly, and to the extent necessary, INVENTEC PERFORMANCE CHEMICALS declines any liability for the defects, quality, technical, and reliability issue or any damages caused by the sourcing and use of non-genuine INVENTEC PERFORMANCE CHEMICALS products. We also want to express our concern that quality issue may result in serious negative financial consequences and threats to the electronics supply chain in sensitive application such as aeronautics, semiconductor and automotive.

At INVENTEC PERFORMANCE CHEMICALS we are taking actions, as part of our continuous commitment, to protect customers and high-performance products supply chain. To reduce the use of ineffective, unsafe, substandard, and uncompliant products, we will keep updating our communications relating to this matter.
